NARRATIVE:

Braswell, a documented gang member, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include battery on a peace officer/emergency personnel, theft, violation of parole, transporting and selling narcotic controlled substances, failure to appear, petty theft with prior specific offenses, theft, possession of controlled substances, burglary, and inflicting corporal injury on spouse or cohabitant. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest a 3 year term for transporting and selling of narcotic controlled substances. Braswell was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on October 23, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in May 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Braswell qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for the charge of corporal injury on a spouse or cohabitant is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
